

iDevice Manager Online Help

Contents

1. Connect to iPhone	2
2. Music	2
3. Videos	2
4. Photos	2
5. Ringtones	2
6. Ringtone Editor	2
7. File Explorer	2
8. Messages	3
9. SMS	3
10. iMessage	3
11. Storage	4
12. List Icon Presentation	4
13. Direct links (only with Jailbreak [= software protection])	4
14. Help	4
15. Service	4
16. File download	4
17. File upload	4
18. Drag n' Drop	4
19. File preview (Preview by Windows default program)	5
20. Reload file list	5
21. System requirements	5
22. Jailbreak? What that? What is there to consider?	5
23. iTunes and Apple Mobile Device Support Components	5

1. Connect to iPhone

The iDevice Manager creates a connection automatically to the iPhone, if it connected via USB cable to the computer. If the connection is active, then is the first icon from the menu bar "Connection" is activated and has an orange background.

2. Music

The button "Music" presents a list of your audio and ringtones on iPhone. The Music area supports the download of files. The integrated search module can look for titles, albums, artists, songs of year. With this function can you find quickly your favorite songs.

3. Videos

The button "Videos" presents a list of iTunes movies on the iPhone. The Videos area supports the download of files. Also here can you find favorite videos by the integrated search.

4. Photos

The button "Photos" presents a list of JPEG, other picture and other files of the pre defined iPhone folder. The Photos area supports the download of files.

5. Ringtones

The button "Ringtones" presents a list of personal ringtones and other files of the pre defined iPhone folder. The ringtone area supports the download and upload of files.

ATTENTION!

The uploaded files will be not creating to an iPhone ringtone. Please use the "Ringtone Editor" to create a ringtone.

6. Ringtone Editor

The "Ringtone editor" gets a chance, to create an iPhone ringtone from any MP3 / M4A song. In contrast to iTunes, can you create ringtones without limited size.

- a. Choose at first the song as an external audio file or an MP3 / M4A song from iPhone library (iPod).
- b. Please check on second step if the song title, artist, an album name and genre are exists. If the tags are not available, then enter the names manually.
- c. Because iTunes internal ringtone requirements, will be delete iTunes all ringtones that exceed more than 32 seconds or a maximum size, in the synchronization of the iPhone deletes the song is recommended to cut through the slider and set at 32 seconds. The quickest way is to check the "Maximum supported length of iTunes to activate. With the help of the player, the shortened song to be heard to the sample.
- d. Start the creating of the ringtones by click on the button "Start Converting ...".

ATTENTION!

Please note the copyright of the songs. Please use only free of rights or purchased music songs.

7. File Explorer

With the "File Explorer" you can browse on file system of the iPhone. Click the node to navigate to the directory tree or by entering of a directory structure in the address line.

Frequently visited folders, can be added to the favorites by the context menu entry "Add to Favorites". A new favorite can also added by drag n 'drop from folder tree to your favorites. The favorites can be displayed from the main menu item "Favorites" or the star icon in front of the search panel.

ATTENTION!

When you delete, rename or replace files, can you corrupt the iPhone. In case of emergency, the iPhone can be restored with iTunes, but all the data are lost.

8. Messages

The area Messages shows the on iPhone exists Email accounts and with a click on the account (email address), also the received, deleted and sent messages. To export of all messages of an account, select the account in the tree with the right mouse key (context menu). In the context menu can you find three export variants, Microsoft Outlook 2007, export as Text file or export of the original physical email as *.emlx format. If you rename the text file to *.eml, than can import the file via drag 'n drop into Outlook Express or Windows Mail.

With the message search can you find mails, specified by part of the subject or message, sender email address, sender name or receive date.

9. SMS

The area SMS shows the on iPhone received and sent SMS messages. The program determine the sender name by phone number, if number is contains in the iPhone contact address book. The in contacts unknown phone numbers, are displayed below the named SMS. A export of SMS messages is also available. The export function is displayed, if you click the right mouse key in the tree.

With the message search can you find mails, specified by part of the message, sender phone number, sender name or receive date.

The SMS area supports three display variants.

- iPhone like
Look like iPhone with bubble speech design
- Category
SMS or MMS categorized by sender name or number with his messages sorted by receive date
- Non category
SMS or MMS sorted by receive date

10. iMessage

The area iMessage shows the on iPhone received and sent iMessage messages, which are sent instead of SMS between iPhone devices. The program determines the sender name by phone number, if number is contains in the iPhone contact address book. The in contacts unknown phone numbers are displayed below the named iMessage. An export of iMessage messages is also available. The export function is displayed, if you click the right mouse key in the tree.

With the message search can you find mails, specified by part of the message, sender phone number, sender name or receive date.

The SMS area supports three display variants.

- iPhone like
Look like iPhone with bubble speech design
- Category
iMessage categorized by sender name or number with his messages sorted by receive date
- Non category
iMessage sorted by receive date

11. Storage

The area 'Storage' is designed to transport or archive of any files and folders were created. You can, for example, PDF or Word documents transferred, but also pictures and other files to your iPhone and restore to friends, acquaintances or in the company via iDevice Manager. Modern iPhone offer up to 32 GB of storage space also for HD movies transport. The area used a protected area on hard disk of the iPhone, so that the operating system from the Smartphone is not affected.

12. List Icon Presentation

You can be made the file lists presentation between details (default), list, small icons and large icons. The function does change only the current displayed list.

13. Direct links (only with Jailbreak [= software protection])

With the direct links can you navigate to iPhone default folders in the File Explorer. If a link is selected, start the File Explorer and navigate automatically to the address.

14. Help

The application help will be presents with press F1 key or with click on question icon on left top site.

15. Service

The iDevice Manager contains two categories "Functions" and the "Service" group. The button „Internet“ does open a connection to the website of iDevice Manager author. The button „Service“ does open a connection to the service website of iDevice Manager author. The button „www.Apple.com“ does open a connection to the website of the Apple Corp.. On apple.com can you download e.g. iTunes.

16. File download

To download files from iPhone, select one or more files and then click the "Download" button. Alternatively contains the context menu of the file list, also a "Download" button.

17. File upload

To upload files to iPhone, click the "Upload" button and select one or more files in the file open dialog. To start, click in file open dialog OK. Alternatively contains the context menu of the file list, also a "Upload" button.

18. Drag n' Drop

All file lists does support the file download via drag n'drop. Select one or more files and move within pressed left mouse key to Windows Desktop or another specified folder on your computer. In the area "Storage" may folders and individual files via Drag 'n Drop in and out of the iDevice Manager and copied it.

19. File preview (Preview by Windows default program)

The context menu of any file lists, contains an item to show the file with the Windows default program for the selected file type.

For example MP3 / M4A song with the Media Player or iTunes, Pictures with the Windows picture preview program or Photoshop.

20. Reload file list

The content of the file lists can you reload by press F5 key or with the context menu item „Refresh. The directory list in the iDevice Manager can also reload by context menu.

21. System requirements

iPhone 4S, 4, 3GS, 3G, 2G up to firmware 3.1

iPod Touch up to firmware 3.1

iPad

iPad 2

iTunes 10.x

Microsoft® Windows® XP Home Edition

Microsoft® Windows® XP Media Center

Microsoft® Windows® XP Professional

Microsoft® Windows® XP Professional N

Microsoft® Windows® XP Professional 64-Bit

Microsoft® Windows Vista™ Editions

Microsoft® Windows Vista™ Editions 64-Bit

Microsoft® Windows 7™ Editions

Microsoft® Windows 7™ Editions 64-Bit

The Service Pack 2 is required for all XP editions.

Microsoft® Windows Server 2003-Family*

Microsoft® Windows Server 2003-Family 64-Bit

Microsoft® Windows Server 2008-Family*

Microsoft® Windows Server 2008-Family 64-Bit

Hint!

All systems required the Microsoft® Internet Explorer 5.01 or later and the Microsoft® Windows® Installer 3.0 or later.

22. Jailbreak? What that? What is there to consider?

Under jailbreak understand the iPhone owner, the opening of the mobile phone to other applications such as Easy to install with Cydia and allow the software lock on the folder structure from the iPhone is repealed. Up to iPhone firmware 3.0.1, everything was easy. With Blackra1n as jailbreak software for firmware 3.1.x, there was a significant change. Blackra1n does not install afc2add the service as its predecessors. The Afc2add service can you install from Cydia. Without this software, it is not possible to get the iDevice Manager full access to the iPhone. For this reason it is recommended that this service retroactively.

23. iTunes and Apple Mobile Device Support Components

Sometimes it may happen that when you install iTunes, not all components in the operating system to be registered or deregistered. Although iTunes works fine, but third-party programs such as the iDevice Manager to work incorrectly. The iDevice Manager, for example, uses the iTunes component "Apple Mobile Device Support" and parts of Apple's "QuickTime". If a component is not found, cannot read or transfer files to your iPhone. The causes can be manifold. It is possible in the environment variable Path missing entries of Quicktime or/and Mobile Device Support, or may be incorrect or DLLs were not registered in Windows or the registry is damaged. For these cases is handled via the Settings menu, iTunes and Mobile Device Support to components uninstall or re-install the required components.